"Dancing Across the Sky" 20"x16" Oil on canvas

“Afternoon Pint” 24”x36” Oil on canvas

First showing of only figurative paintings.

John has an unique ability for portraying the human art form and capturing the personalities of his subjects. Come view for yourself the emotion and stories behind each painting in this collection.

“I visited John’s studio last year and was completely swept away by a group of figurative paintings he was working on. I told John I had to have these paintings in our gallery to show this new direction he discovered. I’m truly fortunate he agreed to a one man show featuring these new figurative works at our gallery in Boston”.
